1                                   MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

2                   The statute governing early termination of supervised release, 18 U.S.C. § 3583(e)(1), 3 provides that the court may terminate a term of supervised release “and discharge the defendant 4 released at any time after the expiration of one year of supervised release, . . . if it is satisfied that 5 such action is warranted by the conduct of the defendant released and in the interest of justice.”

6                   On August 31, 2001, Orlando Lamar Hawkins (“Mr. Hawkins”) pled guilty to Armed 7 Bank Robbery in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 2113 (a) & (d), and Aiding and Abetting in violation of 8 18 U.S.C. § 2. See Docket No. 63 (Judgment in a Criminal Case). Mr. Hawkins was sentenced to 9 ninety (90) months in the custody of the Bureau of Prisons (“BOP”) and to a sixty (60) month term
10 of supervised release. See Docket No. 63 (Judgment in a Criminal Case).

11                  Mr. Hawkins began his supervised release term on November 17, 2007, in the 12 Northern District of Texas. A number of Mr. Hawkins’ family members reside in Texas. For three 13 and one half years, Mr. Hawkins abided by his conditions of supervised release without incident.
14 It was not until September 6, 2011, that a petition seeking to revoke his supervised release term was 15 filed with the court outlining his alleged violations. See Docket No. 64 (Petition). United States 16 Probation Officer, Joel Nelson, Assistant United States Attorney Kimberly Frayn (“the 17 government”), and the defense recommended to the Court that Mr. Hawkins be allowed to continue 18 on with his current term of supervised release and his conditions be modified to include residence
19 and participation in the program of a residential re-entry center for a period of six months. See 20 Ex. A (Sentencing Recommendation). The government further agreed that if Mr. Hawkins is in 21 compliance at the time of the status check hearing, which is currently scheduled for April 17, 2012, 22 that it will move to dismiss the petition.

23                  Mr. Hawkins is in compliance with the rules and regulations at the Residential Re-
24 Entry Center. His six month term is scheduled to expire on approximately April 13, 2012. Mr.
25 Hawkins is diligently searching for employment, but has been unable to secure employment. As a 26 result, Mr. Hawkins is further unable to obtain a residence of his own. After April 13, 2012, Mr.
27 Hawkins will not have a place to reside and if continued on supervision will have to request
28 continued placement at the residential re-entry center. However, early termination from supervision

1 would allow Mr. Hawkins the ability to return to Texas to reside with his sister and pursue job
2 opportunities that are available to him. Mr. Hawkins previously worked for New Breed, Subway,
3 and Williams & Dickey when he lived in Texas. He contacted these various establishments and each 4 indicated that they would welcome Mr. Hawkins back as an employee.

5 Mr. Hawkins is a respectful person that strives to provide a better life for himself.
6 Since November 2011, Mr. Hawkins has complied with his substance abuse individual and group 7 counseling requirement. Mr. Hawkins completed his individual counseling, and is scheduled to 8 complete group counseling on April 12, 2012. Mr. Hawkins has benefitted from his counseling and 9 has not tested positive for any illegal substance since his placement in counseling. Mr. Hawkins is 10 no longer in need of any services offered by the United States Probation Office.

11 Mr. Hawkins also fulfilled his court ordered financial obligations by payment of his 12 $100 penalty assessment fee and restitution See Ex. B. Mr. Hawkins' recent conduct while on 13 supervised release is strong evidence that he is ready for his supervision period to end. Mr. Hawkins 14 is an appropriate candidate for early termination of supervised release. Mr. Hawkins has been 15 accountable to his probation officer at all times.

16 Undersigned counsel contacted the Probation Officer and the Assistant United States
17 Attorney regarding Mr. Hawkins' request for early termination and they do not object to his request 18 for early termination.

19 CONCLUSION

20 In summary, Mr. Hawkins has made the most of his over four years of supervision.
21 Mr. Hawkins has learned from his past transgression and no longer desires the social settings that 22 led him before this Court. For all of these reasons, Mr. Hawkins respectfully requests that this Court 23 grant his early termination from supervised release.

24
25 Respectfully submitted by,
